

Family Hymn

Today the face of the Earth
Through Europe, which created that trunk
Bears that blood which carries a shield
Of courage, optimism and love.

It was sown throughout all of America
Offering creative work
Raising its valiant name
Under the protection of God
Tree of life,
Divine estate

Let us sing, Buchacas,
Let us sing, Bochacas,
Let us sing, Butxacas
Oh, what a marvel!

A strong and complete rock
Shoots which are renewed

Different letters
With different languages
And the same blood
Travel this Earth!

Firm marks engraved on memory
In a world of war and peace.
Swelling the lines of history
In their fatherland and crossing the sea.

Today reunited, they embrace their children,
Singing this immortal hymn,
with pride and joy
I will swear to be always loyal to it!!!
